

A Big Thank You

We would like to thank all parent/carers for supporting the school to remain open for Polling Day. Despite the temporary changes that were made in order to accommodate the Polling Station, the day was very successful and we were able to open as normal so that the pupils did not miss out on a day's learning.

Again, thank you for your continued support and co-operation.

St John's Walworth

